THE CHARTER OF PEACE

Introduction

We, the young people of Europe, think that peace is an inalienable right. All people are born different and unique, yet they are all equal. They deserve equal dignity and deserve equal respect, equal rights and PEACE, regardless of citizenship, ethnicity, religion, gender and sexual orientation.

We are all separated, we don't have the capacity to see each other every day, however, there is something that brings us together – the responsibility to live peacefully, to develop, to experience happiness.
